A letter from the president.

At Connecticut Shotgun we are extremely pleased with our new line of shotguns, the RBL. These are truly high quality shotguns made to the very highest standard of the gun makers' art. There are no shortcuts involved in the manufacture of these guns. Virtually all of the components are manufactured from solid blocks of steel which are then hand fitted and finished by our skilled craftsman.

The RBL is our first venture into a high quality American made shotgun which enables our customer to specify features and options on a standardized platform. The result is a made-to-order shotgun at an extremely affordable price, in fact, we know of no other shotgun in the world today that combines any better value or higher quality. Each RBL shotgun is built with pride in our factory located in New Britain, CT. You can have confidence knowing that your RBL will be handed down from one generation to the next. We encourage you to look through our catalog and also to feel free to contact us with any questions that you may have. We look forward to constructing for you the very best American made shotgun.

“I said I don’t want to sound gushy, but it would be a fair question to ask if I’m impressed with the RBL. Answer: Uh-huh. Big Time.”

- MICHAEL MCINTOSH, Renowned Author & Sportsman

A gun that that speaks for itself.

“The RBL-Launch Edition™ is a landmark of modern American Gunmaking.”

- BRUCE BUCK, Shooting Sportsman Magazine

“The superior quality and functionality of this shotgun make it an excellent value. Surely my RBL will become a family heirloom.”

- STEVEN P. LEFEBVRE, RBL Owner

“I entered the 20 Gauge World Championships and smashed all but two targets to win the Open Bronze Medal. There is no gun like it on the market! The Galazan RBL represents a true, best gun value for the SxS enthusiast.”

- HAL M. HARE, NSSA All-American

“An American made upland double with the form, fit and function to rival shotguns costing thousands more. So many have tried and failed ... congratulations to Connecticut Shotgun for taking on a tremendous challenge and succeeding.”

- OJ CHARTRAND JR., RBL Owner

“I put just over one hundred boxes (2,500 rounds) of ammunition through the RBL while in Uruguay. It functioned without flaw the whole time.”

- TRACY WALSH, RBL Owner

“The RBL represents the finest value in side by side doubles in the world today. Even though I only hunt with pre-war side by sides, I bought a 28 gauge RBL that will be used often in the field.”

We build these guns on a limited production basis for gun clubs and special events.

When the NRA wanted a special gun, something that is truly unique and high quality that represents their organization, they selected Connecticut Shotgun's RBL™ and worked with our design team in the presentation department to produce a limited run.

These special RBL's are available in any of the gauges we make the gun in, configuration, engraving patterns, etc. They are made in groups from quantities of ten and more.

We can only produce a limited amount of these guns due to the level of skilled labor that is required, which will be confirmed when a request is made.

Custom Case with Special label:

Labels include custom name and serial number.

This gun features an upgraded oak and leather case.
